

Leonardo Lifelong Learning Project – Open Out Arts

Mobility Schedule, Objectives And Outcomes

Project Outcomes listed in the original bid

- To deliver a vocational training programme which will enable practitioners to:
  - increase their employability & entrepreneurship, supporting commercially successful work and artistic excellence
  - develop skills needed to access wider markets for their work & diversify their practice e.g. in a community context
  - gain access to employment in the European market
- Develop better practice for organisations delivering VET and professional development for outdoor arts and establish ‘hallmarks of excellence’
- Establish European networks of cooperation in VET for outdoor arts and the potential for new types of cooperation to develop new markets for work e.g. new touring models
- Sharing experience between artists/promoters and established artists/emerging artists
- Identify key emerging issues affecting the marketplace for outdoor arts practitioners and establish vocational training approaches to address these
- Developing promotional skills and use of technology
- Interdisciplinary practice – and entering outdoor arts from other disciplines
- Changing roles and relationships in a changing landscape
- The role and requirements of Creation/Training spaces and the opportunity for European networking
- Networking, partnering, mentoring and reciprocal support – establishing practical mutual support between partners and participants across the network that fosters ongoing organic relationships and new commissioning partnerships
